

October 10, 2002

Jane Doe
123 Main St.
Irvine, Ca 92614

Human Resources
Washington Mutual – Irvine

To whom it may concern:

I am ~~writing to apply~~ applying for the ~~position of r~~Reward ~~a~~Analyst ~~position at Washington Mutual,~~ which was posted on the Washington Mutual homepage. ~~After I reading~~ the responsibilities for ~~the Reward Analyst~~ position, and I am very excited about the opportunity. ~~I believe that involving in a people management is my next step to take to facilitate my career interests in a financial industry.~~ I am especially interested in ~~the~~ analytical aspects of ~~the a~~ financial industry, thus the ~~Reward-reward a~~Analyst position ~~offers represents~~ the best of my career interests ~~coupled with the required skills I already possess.~~

I believe ~~that~~ there is a direct connection between an adequate compensation programs and ~~at~~the company's overall performance. ~~Because these managerial decisions related to compensation programs directly affect the quality of an organization's workforce and the satisfaction of employees.~~ Throughout my work and educational experiences, I ~~have been required to problem-solve faeed~~ many complex ~~issues, problems.~~ ~~In doing so, However, with~~ my scientific background, along with my interests in human psychology, ~~has enabled~~ me to design systematic procedures ~~to approach~~ ~~such~~complex problems in ~~more effective mannerways.~~ I believe ~~that~~ my abilities to ~~problem-solve in an independent manner systematically approach complex problems~~ will enable me to design and implement excellent adequate reward systems ~~for your company.~~ ~~I also believe that m~~My commitments to continuously improve my personal and professional life ~~as well~~ will positively affect my work performance, ~~especially as I.~~ ~~As a first step to my commitment, I am e~~currently ~~pursue my attending a~~ fully-employed M.B.A. program at Pepperdine University.

My extensive M.B.A. studies and projects at Pepperdine ~~have~~ University provided me with essential knowledge in business theories, skills, and trainings. ~~In addition, m~~My previous work experience as a scientific researcher ~~can also be a positive influence to the Reward Analyst position.~~ ~~As a scientific research associate, granted me a wealth of business-related I gained many invaluable skills,~~ including ~~but not limited to~~ hands-on applications, computer analysis, scientific analysis, managing patient relations, managing research budgets, and collaborative work with biotechnology firms and foundations. ~~And my Thus my acquired~~ skills in complex data analysis and management will ~~definitely benefit your company and ensure a enable me to provide a~~ high-quality performance ~~from me~~ as a ~~r~~Reward ~~a~~Analyst.

I am confident that I can perform effectively as a Washington Mutual ~~r~~Reward ~~a~~Analyst. I would welcome the opportunity for a personal interview ~~to~~ further discussion ~~on~~ my qualifications ~~and how I can bring a wealth of skills to your company.~~

~~Thank you for your time I will be available at your convenience. I greatly appreciate your time and considerations. I look forward to hearing from you soon.~~

Sincerely,

Jane Doe

